

October 2023 Deadline

Organization	Community	Project	Allocation
Art Gallery of Regina Inc.	Regina	Healing & Connecting to the Past Through Clay: An Artist-led Workshop is a community-engaged workshop led by KC Adams (Cree, Ojibwe, Scottish), of Healing Through Clay, which connects women to land, water, and ancestral knowledge through clay.	$ 15,000.00
Building Bridges for the Future of Saskatoon Inc.	Saskatoon	niyak ketayak kiskeyitamowin - Future Knowledge Keepers is a program aimed at connecting the White Buffalo Youth Council (WBYC) members, ages 14-18, to their culture and identity.	$ 30,000.00
City of Lloydminster	Lloydminster	Living Powwow Exhibit: Youth Driving Culture will foster cultural leadership among Indigenous youth through interactive Indigenous exhibit engagements, artistic workshops, and mentorship which will also enrich Lloydminster's community with Indigenous traditions and insights.	$ 7,955.00
Reconciliation Saskatoon	Saskatoon	Tipi Teachings for the Next Generation , led by a Knowledge Keeper with tipi teachings will pass on traditional knowledge and skills in tipi care and raising with a group of Indigenous youth.	$ 15,000.00
Star Blanket Cree Nation	Balcarres	Star Blanket Winter CAMP 2023 , hosted by Star Blanket Cree Nation, and in partnership with local provincial schools, will offer a winter tipi camp to celebrate the winter solstice.	$ 15,500.00
YWCA Regina Inc.	Regina	Reconciliation and Cultural Revitalization through Language will offer Indigenous language classes to undo ongoing destructive impacts of colonialism by increasing cultural knowledge, connection and identity for children, youth, and families.	$ 15,080.00
TOTAL			$ 98,535.00