

Winter 2023 Deadline

Organization	Community	Project	Allocation
Chokecherry Studios Incorporated	Saskatoon	Removing Barriers for Young and Emerging Artists project aims to decrease barriers among young and emerging artists in inner-city Saskatoon by providing access to the necessary audio and visual equipment to develop their artistic practice and contribute to Saskatchewan's cultural sector.	$ 2,000.00
German Canadian Concordia Club of Saskatoon Inc.	Saskatoon	Concordia Alpenrose Schuhplatter Verein Western Canadian Workshop , hosted this year by GCCC, is a weekend event with Dance groups from across western Canada and the United States and includes a meet and greet, dance workshops, and banquet and dance, all open to the public.	$ 2,000.00
Hudson Bay Allied Arts Council	Hudson Bay	Hudson Bay Allied Arts Council Annual Community Art Show is an invitation to all community members to exhibit their various art projects in a setting designed to show case their particular talents, whether the medium is drawing, painting, carving, sculpture, mixed mediums, or any other art initiative.	$ 460.00
Interdisciplinary Society of Global Artists (ISGA)	Saskatoon	Empowering Global Artists to Illuminate Diverse Perspectives supports the establishment of ISGA as a non-profit organization and plans for a website, advertising, promotion and outreach.	$ 2,000.00
Lumsden Public Library	Lumsden	Introductions to beading and painting project will provide an introduction to Aboriginal beading workshop in February with a leader walking through the items used. An April workshop will introduce water color painting.	$ 2,000.00
Macklin Adult Community Drama	Macklin	Update stage lighting purchase of LED lighting for the Credit Union Legacy Centre will provide a more comfortable and cooler space for all the various community performers as well as varied lighting effects for productions.	$ 2,000.00
Melfort Arts Council Inc.	Melfort	Exploring Cultural Roots through Art , hosted by the Melfort Arts Council, is a two-day professional development visual arts workshop exploring cultural roots and heritage in art.	$ 2,000.00

Mistawasis Nehiyawak	Leask/ Mistawasis Nehiyawak First Nation	Sewing Class Equipment will provide all participants with equipment and supplies at their own workstations so they can learn how to sew Ribbon Skirts.	$ 2,000.00
Nepalese Community of Saskatoon Inc	Saskatoon	Community Needs and Resource Assessment Project will start with a one-day community engagement session and then an online youth session to review existing organizational goals, document short and long-term community needs, and assess barriers, followed by a comprehensive survey and evaluation of feedback and finally advocate for solutions.	$ 2,000.00
Polish Canadian Cultural Club Inc.	Regina	Unveiling the Legacy of Polish Canadian Pioneers in Saskatchewan initiative will design, create, and install museum grade interpretive signage placed at key locations associated with Polish Canadian pioneers, settlements, and culturally significant landmarks throughout Saskatchewan.	$ 1,900.00
Prairie Music Hall	Saskatoon	Prairie Music Hall Festival is a weekend music festival where attendees will enjoy live music performances, participate in open-stage and all-age-and-ability jam sessions and join in the set and square-dance portion of the program.	$ 2,000.00
Saskatoon Fiddle Orchestra Inc.	Saskatoon	Saskatoon Fiddle Orchestra 20th Anniversary Spring Show will include two fiddlers - JJ Guy and Lucas Welsh, along with local Métis jiggers, Scottish dancers and swing dancers, and a trio of trumpet players to perform in the show.	$ 2,000.00
Stoughton Public Library	Stoughton	Pottery classes will offer teens and adults three Pottery classes from Aftermath Ceramics at the Stoughton Library for the community.	$ 2,000.00
The Mixed Crips	Swift Current	The Mixed Crips Podcast Season 2 project will produce six episodes featuring six artists living with disability discussing their experiences in the Arts World as disabled artists and how they maneuver in "Crip Culture" (disability culture).	$ 2,000.00
Town of Watson	Watson	Project Make Winter Fun will offer inter-generational led afterschool baking, quilting, sewing and knitting classes open to all ages 5 years old and up.	$ 2,000.00
TOTAL			$ 28,360.00