

Summer 2023 Deadline

Organization	Community	Project	Allocation
All Nations gathering Pow Wow	Regina	All Nations Gathering Pow Wow honours both families of MMIWG2S, and past and present survivors of residential schools in and around Regina and beyond. This is the last gathering of a 4-year cycle of memorial pow wows to honour the organizers' daughter, other victims, and survivors and to engage those who may not be aware.	$ 2,000.00
Association of Nigerians in Northern Saskatchewan	Melfort	63rd Nigeria Independence Day Celebration , hosted by the Association of Nigerians in Northern Saskatchewan, showcases Nigeria's history and diverse culture, as well as their contributions in Northern Saskatchewan.	$ 2,000.00
Canadian Friends of African Immigrants INC	Saskatoon	Traditions, Cultural and Language Training project delivers relevant cultural activities, traditional activities, and youth leadership training.	$ 2,000.00
Canahari Multidisciplinary Summer Programs Incorporated	Regina	Canahari Cultural Fest is a vibrant and interactive highlight of the Black Youth Summer Camp, a safe and inclusive space for Black children 5-15 years old. The Camp has enriching educational experiences, mentorship, and cultural activities. Cultural Fest celebrates the diverse heritage, history, and accomplishments of the Black community while promoting unity and empowerment.	$ 2,000.00
Carlyle Public Library/Southeast Regional Library	Carlyle	Indigenous Programming provides a safe space and cultural literacy for vulnerable youth within our community. The goal is to provide cultural structure, imagination exploration, community building, hand-to-eye coordination, and self-expression.	$ 2,000.00
Chief Long Lodge	Sintaluta	Tipi Teachings in Nakoda will use the purchased Tipi for many different types of learning that are threaded throughout Nakoda culture.	$ 2,000.00
Keeseekoose First Nation	Kamsack	Using traditions to solve residential school challenges and generational effects of Genocide is an initiative where "Truth paves the path to Reconciliation". Our history has an incredible amount of meaning to the way we function as Indigenous peoples within our own communities and we need to share this with each other and with non-Indigenous people in our communities.	$ 2,000.00

Regina Little Theatre Society, Inc.	Regina	"Does My Head Look Big in This?" is a partnership between Regina Little Theatre and Lexeme Theatre, a Pakistani theatre company, to produce a staged reading of "Does My Head Look Big in This?". The evening of educational, informative entertainment includes a lobby display showcasing the Pakistani culture, various religions, national dress, a question and answer session, and history of the hijab.	$ 1,540.00
Regina Residential Resource Centre (RRRC)	Regina	Cultural Inclusivity and Empowerment project will foster cultural inclusivity and empower intellectually disabled individuals through diverse, enriching experiences, and promote understanding, self-expression, and a sense of belonging.	$ 1,600.00
Ruthilda Metis Local #105	Biggar	Open Heart, Open Mind Painted Quilt Project is a community collaboration to share culture and history through painting "quilt" pieces. While painting together, everyone will share stories and cultural designs.	$ 2,000.00
Sand Hills Music Festival Association	Leader	Leader Community Youth Choir is an initiative to remove financial barriers to participation and increase the appreciation of performance arts through growth, exposure and development opportunities to a greater number of young people.	$ 2,000.00
Saskatchewan Chinese Youth Association Incorporated	Regina	Dragon Boat Festival Community Booth will offer cultural activities such as Chinese calligraphy workshops. Roll-up banners will share the initiatives of SCYA with community members.	$ 500.00
Shell Lake Event Committee	Shell Lake	Live Music at the Gazebo is a free, family-friendly evening of live music at Shell Lake Museum's outdoor gazebo. There will be live music from local band The Brothers G (Hafford, Sk), local artisans and food vendors, and a sunset picnic on the grass. This will be the first year of an ongoing annual event showcasing arts and culture.	$ 2,000.00
Southeast Regional Library - Ogema Branch	Ogema	Philippine Lantern (Parol) Making Workshops is for every age and skill level to learn the Philippine tradition of Parol-making. The Parol announce the coming of Christmas.	$ 2,000.00
Touchwood Agency Tribal Council Inc.	Punnichy	TATC MMIWG2S+ Monument Unveiling initiative will be a cultural event to commemorate the unveiling of a Memorial Monument for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls and Two-Spirited loved ones.	$ 2,000.00

Wapi Kihew Attention to Creative Solutions Inc.	Saskatoon	Sewing is Healing workshop to make beaded fedoras, hosted by Wapi Kihew and lead by Tara Belegarde, is a healing course using sewing as a traditional way to connect to ourselves and offers an escape through traditional teachings.	$	2,000.00
White Bear First Nations	Carlyle	Sharing our Knowledge through Language, Culture and Traditions initiative will gather the White Bear First Nation and provide many cultural experiences that involve youth and elders, and include knowledge keepers to assist in language development and proper protocols.	$	2,000.00
TOTAL			$	31,640.00